MAY, NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY-FIVE

ANNUAL MEETING, MARCH 16TH, 1945
THE ART GALLERY OF TORONTO
REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT

WE are now in the sixth year of the War and are pleased to record that our efforts to show the people of Ontario the best in Painting, Sculpture and the Graphic Arts has met with general approval. In these difficult times I would remind you that "Art is a satisfaction to an emotional need, and therefore a pleasure" so while our Exhibitions have an educational value, we feel that they give great pleasure to thousands. The same can be said of our musical programmes.

You will notice that I used the word "Ontario" for I think that our educational classes and travelling exhibitions are spreading the cultural values far beyond the confines of Toronto. At the risk of repeating myself, I would like to again stress this aspect of the Gallery's work.

Three innovations in the Educational Programme I think are worthy of mention. First, the beginning of a series of special evenings devoted to High School students; second, the plan to open the Gallery one evening a week for visitors; and third, the establishment of our Circulating Exhibitions throughout the Province. Some of these are made up by ourselves and some are circulated through the co-operation of the Museum of Modern Art in New York.

Our collection of paintings is slowly forging ahead and there is a growing demand from other Galleries for the loan of our pictures. They have gone to Chicago, Yale, New York, some are in Brazil, and we have made many loans to military institutions in Canada. These loans amount to nearly seventy pictures in all.

We are not a large, rich or old Gallery but we should aim to make it a Gallery of masterpieces. "Quality" should be the watchword. May I suggest to you that all masterpieces were not painted in the past, but are still being painted. I am firmly convinced that we should purchase none but the best, quality should be the test in every case and that we should buy the important pictures of Canadian painters, when possible.

There would not be time for me to enumerate all our treasures here, but I have felt for some time that the people of Ontario are unaware of the great pictures that are available for their education and enjoyment. I feel, also, that we as a Gallery have failed to publicize what we have to offer—I am speaking now of our permanent collection, for instance:

"THE WEST WIND" by Tom Thomson,

"LA CONVERSATION" by Vuillard.

This small but beautiful Vuillard picture received great praise from the critics of the Christian Science Monitor and the Boston Transcript, both praising it as one of the gems of the Exhibition and a little masterpiece.

I mention this painting particularly and the "WEST WIND" by Tom Thomson, as they are both masterpieces. There is a third great painting:

"HARVEST WAGON" by Gainsborough, considered one of his greatest landscapes. Some of our other treasures are:

"DAEDALUS AND ICARUS" by Van Dyck,

"PORTRAIT OF THE REV. SALEM BLAND" by Lawren Harris,

"COUNTRY NORTH OF LAKE SUPERIOR" by Lawren Harris,

"FALLS, MONTREAL RIVER" by J. E. H. MacDonald,

"BARNs" by A. Y. Jackson.

We regret the loss of twenty-three members of the Gallery who have died during the year and I should like to take this opportunity of extending the Gallery's sympathy to their families.

During the year 1944 we completed our redecoration of the main floor of the Gallery building by painting the E. R. Wood Gallery, the Fudger Gallery and the Rotunda. The Library in the Grange House was also cleaned and refinished. The general repair of the Gallery was kept up to its normal high standard through the good work of William Lancaster, our foreman, and his staff. We would like to give special recognition for their splendid work during the Allied Merchant Seamen Exhibition last March, when they had to accept long hours together with very heavy labour.

I should like to call your attention to the good work of the Gallery staff as a whole during the year. Since war began, the activities of the Gallery have become more complicated and intensified with a very small increase in the permanent staff. Their sincerity and devotion cannot be too highly commended.

During the year we held seventeen exhibitions, of which eight were under the auspices of various Canadian Artists' Societies. The outstanding exhibition was, of course, the "Great Paintings" in aid of the Allied Merchant Seamen. Through the courtesy of the Ontario Society of Artists, we were able to carry this exhibition over five weeks and it was an outstanding success. Over fifty-seven thousand people attended and we were able to turn over to the Navy League over twenty-five thousand dollars. The second most popular exhibition, which over twenty thousand people attended, was the "Master Plan of Toronto" as proposed by the City Planning Board. The total attendance for the year was over one hundred and forty-seven thousand as compared with over one hundred and one thousand last year.

In 1942 we commenced issuing to our members a reproduction of one of the Canadian paintings in the Gallery. This reproduction goes free to members and we again issued one this year. The three paintings which have been reproduced are:

"WEST WIND" by Tom Thomson,

"EARLY SPRING" by A. Y. Jackson,

"MIST FANTASY" by J. E. H. MacDonald.

We are glad to report that we are having an increasing demand for these reproductions outside our own membership.

In my last year's report you will remember that I paid special tribute to Dr. A. Y. Jackson, Mr. A. J. Casson of Sampson Matthews Ltd. and Mr. H. O. McCurry of the National Gallery, Ottawa, for their wonderful work in establishing mass production of colour printing by the silk screen process. All these prints were reproductions of paintings by Canadian artists. I should particularly like to emphasize the part played by Mr. McCurry of the National Gallery, Ottawa, in financing and making it possible for these silk screen prints to be made on such a vast scale. Over fifteen thousand pictures were supplied free of all cost to the Armed Services.

That the Art Gallery should broaden its activities, is borne out by the fact that sixteen representatives of Cultural Societies in Canada, such as the Royal Canadian Academy of Arts, the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada, etc., have presented a Brief to the Special Committee on Reconstruction in Ottawa, pointing out that the Creative Arts stand in a key position in the economy of the whole nation and that the influence stems from the fine arts, and urging that a Ministry of Fine Arts be set up for the supervision of all cultural activities. Space will not permit an elaboration of the details, but I think the Gallery should stand behind this scheme.

I can visualize our Gallery becoming a great one in a provincial and national sense, with a membership drawn from every walk of life and from the towns and cities of Ontario as well as the rural areas.

In this way we would become a great "people's Gallery" and fulfill our destiny. If we are to become a democratic institution as I hope we are, we must show the state that we are worthy of support.

We have to again thank the many institutions and corporations that have so generously contributed to our "special donations" fund. The amount contributed to this fund in 1944 and 1945 being twelve thousand dollars.

I would also like to express our thanks to the many institutions who contribute so much to our programme by their collaboration in lending us pictures and other works of art to make up our exhibitions.

I was elected President of the Art Gallery on April 9th, 1941, so have nearly completed four years' tenure of office. Last summer after serious deliberation, I notified the Executive that I desired to resign from the office of President.

During this meeting a new President will be elected and I should like to wish him the best of luck and on your behalf assure him of the greatest possible support. While I am severing my official connection with the Gallery, I need not assure you of my future hopes for, and interest in, the Gallery.

In conclusion I wish to pay tribute to my wife and children for their active assistance and support. I can assure you that the war years have not been easy ones as far as the Gallery work is concerned. I, in common with all the others, have tried to do my best and it is with genuine regret that I am saying Good-bye.

JOHN M. LYLE, President of The Art Gallery.
